

Rani McClendon Aishman teaches 5th grade science in Pearland, Texas

Rani's profile:

Hometown: Lubbock, Texas

Major at TAMUG: Marine Biology, 2000

Number of years in classroom: 5

My School: Alexander Middle School, Pearland ISD

Extracurricular sponsorships/coaching assignments: Quiz Bowl and Science Club

Other subjects taught: 6th grade science and social studies

How I motivate my students to learn: I motivate my students to learn through listening to their stories and trying to give them time to socialize.

My educational philosophy: Be flexible!

My long term career goals: Become a principal

Favorite part of my job: Allowing my students to form connections.

Least favorite part of my job: Paperwork and TAKS!

My Hobbies: My three month old